

"Ethical issues in infectious disease epidemics"

Speaker: Dr. Euzebiusz (Zeb) Jamrozik, Head of Monash-WHO Collaborating Centre for Bioethics, Monash Bioethics Centre, Postdoctoral fellow in ethics and infectious disease - Ethox Centre, University of Oxford, Clinical fellow - Melbourne Medical School, University of Melbourne.

Biography:

Dr. Euzebiusz (Zeb) Jamrozik is an internal medicine physician and fellow in ethics and infectious diseases at the Wellcome Centre for Ethics and Humanities at the University of Oxford.

He is head of the Monash-WHO Collaborating Centre for bioethics at the Monash Bioethics Centre.

His academic work on infectious disease ethics is focused on vaccines, vector-borne disease, and drug resistance.

He posts about infectious disease ethics at @ID\_ethics .

All welcome!

Click here to join the meeting

Enquiries: Lindsay Wu lindsay.wu@unsw.edu.au